

CANDIDATE FOR SALES AND MARKETING

UROŠ MAROLT – born in 1972 in Celje. In 1997 he graduated from the Faculty of Economics in Ljubljana in sales and marketing relations, and he is finishing Master's degree at the Faculty of Economics in Maribor. He speaks English, German and Polish.

In the period 1996 - 1997 he worked at the company MGA Nazarje as Controller in Controlling Department of MGA Nazarje (BSH Nazarje), and started to work at Gorenje, d.d., in 1998. Till the year 2001 he worked as Commercialist, responsible for Russia region, afterwards he was managing commercial business area at the Gorenje subsidiary Gorenje Polska Sp. z o.o., Poland, where he was in 2002 appointed General Director. In September 2005 he took over the Management at the Gorenje subsidiary Gorenje Austria Handels GmbH, Austria.

CANDIDATE FOR COMPLEMENTARY PROGRAMS, PURCHASE AND LOGISTICS

BRANKO APAT – born in 1958 in Slovenj Gradec. In 1984 he graduated from the Faculty of Economics in Maribor in foreign trade relations. In 1988 completed post-graduate study at Chamber of Marketing in USA. He speaks English and German.

After his study he worked at the company Gorenje Commerce, as probationer, after that he worked as commercialist for so-called green program. He was continuing his business career as Export Manager, responsible for the Near East. In 1988 he became Deputy Export Director for the programs out-of white goods and was responsible for sales and marketing in South America. After Gorenje transformation in 1990, he was appointed as Purchasing Director at Gorenje gospodinjski aparati, d.o.o., in April 1993 he was appointed as Sales and Marketing Director. In September 1999 was entered upon the restructuring of the company Gorenje Tiki, d.o.o., where he is at present the General Director of this company. In 2003 he was appointed Executive Director by the Management Board, responsible for coordination's between some companies within Gorenje Group, covering the business areas of industrial equipment and tool & die making and from 2006 he was also responsible for supplementary program within Gorenje, d.d.