Regional economic growth has slowed but is expected to stay above the Eurozone

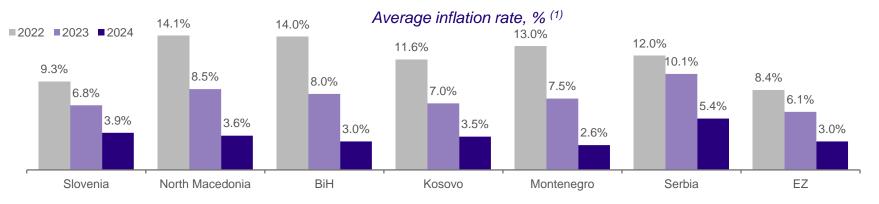

Group's region continued to grow, and is expected to grow at rates above Eurozone average, despite facing demanding macroeconomic environment...

Sources: FocusEconomics, Statistical offices, estimation for BiH and Kosovo for 2022, NLB Forecasts for 2023 and 2024.

The growth in 2022 was relatively robust while in last quarter of 2022 growth rates cooled notably as economies faced more demanding macroeconomical conditions. Household consumption already had a negative impact on growth in the euroarea in Q4 of 2022, and similar dynamics (albeit with a lag) should weigh on regional growth in 2023. The doubledigit inflation that significantly weighed on households' purchasing power and consumption habits over the year should subside as export sectors await the european demand to return.

...as high inflation, which is expexted to ease in 2023, weighed on disposable incomes.

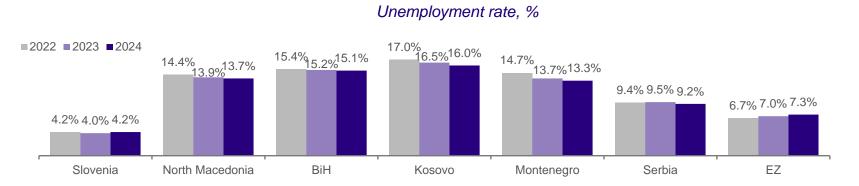

Inflation was predominantly driven by surging energy and food prices, thereby the Group's region was hit stronger due to relatively higher share of food and energy in disposable income. Hence the rate will be more stubborn to come down (compared to the one in euro area).

Regional economic growth has slowed but is expected to stay above the Eurozone

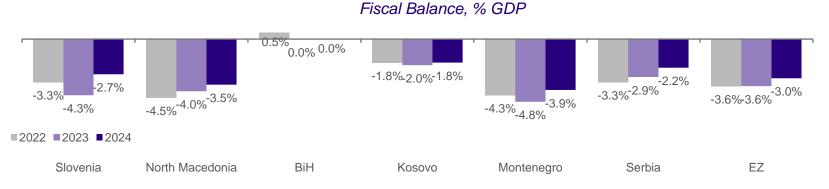

Labour market is expected to get slightly less tight in 2023...

By end-2022, employment rate increased in most countries of the Group's region and some of them reached historical highs of employment levels. Nevertheless, in Q4 2022 the labour market has started to cool, with employment slowing amid the still elevated inflation and increased uncertainty.

...while fiscal metrics will depend on the degree of fiscal policy efficiency and prudence in attempt to address issues related to rising-cost-of-living.

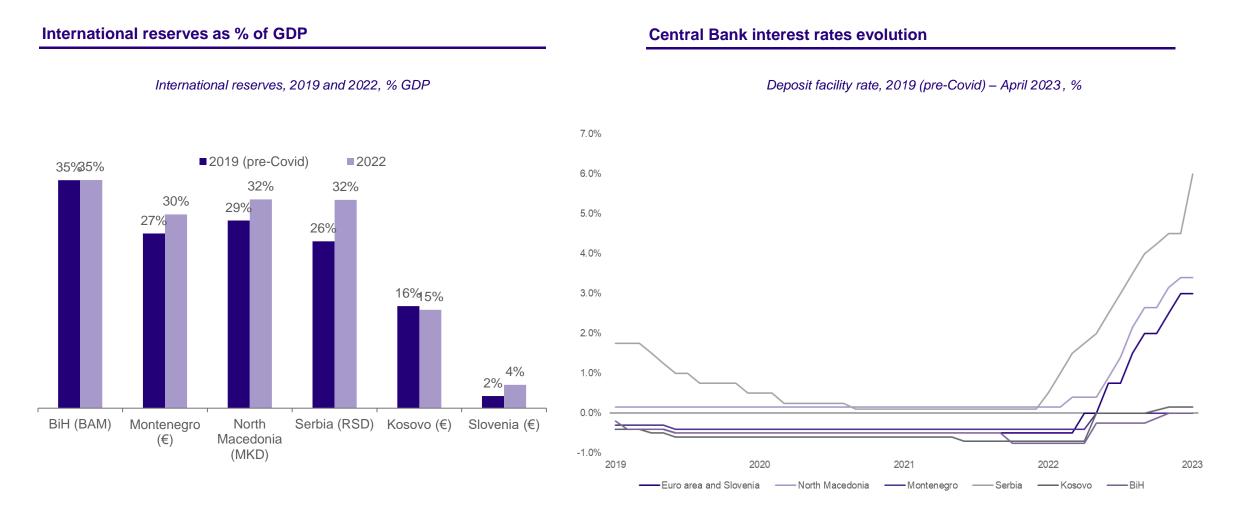

Fiscal support measures aimed at alleviating the impact of the increase in energy prices generated notable fiscal costs. Public debt levels are below the Eurozone across countries of the Group's region although pandemic- and cost-of-living crisis-related increases in debt-levels combined with tightening global financial conditions have reduced fiscal space and increased debt vulnerabilities.

Key Developments

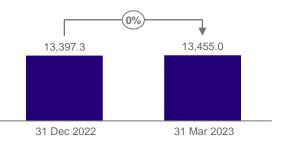

In 2023, the Bank changed the recognition of obligation for regulatory expenses. In the previous year, these expenses were recognised in Q2, after receiving the Bank of Slovenia's notification, while in 2023, the Bank recognised these expenses in full already in Q1. Comparative amounts for previous periods have been adjusted to reflect this change in the presentation.

Net profit of NLB Group – evolution YoY (in EURm)

Strong performance of the NLB Group in Q1 2023 led to a profit a.t. of EUR 120.1 million, lower YoY due to one-off effects from the acquisition of N Banka in Q1 2022. Noteworthy, in Q1 2023 profit before impairments and provisions grew 16% YoY.

Income Statement Strong operational performance increasing resilience of the NLB Group

Result before impairments and provisions amounted to EUR 124.8 million, higher QoQ and YoY. Recurring pre-provision profit grew substantialy QoQ and YoY. Main drivers of yearly dynamics in recurring pre-provision profit:

- net interest income increased across all markets, mostly driven by increasing interest rates: EUR 71.2 million YoY
- net fee and commission income increased by 2% YoY, with increased fees from cards and ATM operations, as well as payment transactions offsetting the cancellation of high balance deposit fee in the Bank partly offset by:

 increased employee costs and general and administrative expenses, mostly driven by inflation.

One-time expenses for regulatory costs in the Bank and N Banka were booked in January, EUR 8.6 million for DGS and EUR 2.9 million for SRF.

Business Performance

Net interest income Strong margin pick-up on the back of NII growth

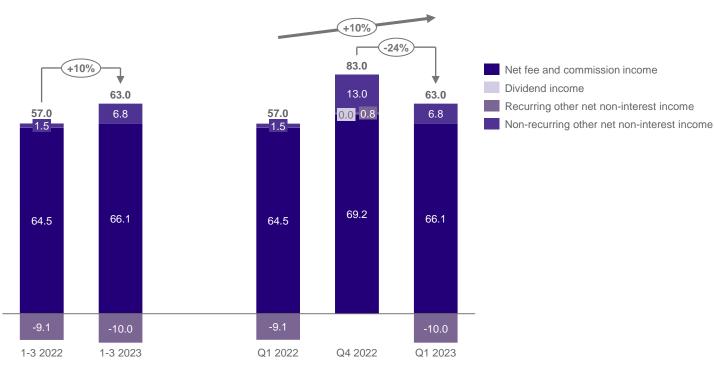

- YoY growth in interest income derived from:
 - loans to customers: EUR 56.8 of which EUR 23.6 million from individuals and EUR 33.2 million from corporate and state, with both loan growth and interest rate increase being important contributors
 - balances at banks and central banks (EUR 25.1 million)
- Interest expenses increased mostly due to
 - higher expenses for wholesale funding raised for MREL and capital requirements
 - higher expenses for customers deposits
- On QoQ basis the interest income was higher mostly due to higher interest rates, while interest expenses were higher due to higher interest rates on customer deposits and new funding (including, subordinated debt).

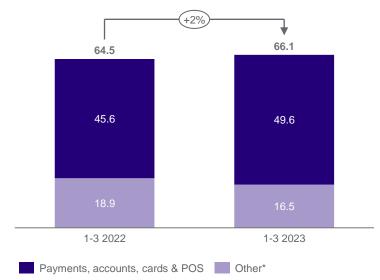

The net interest margin of the Group increased and reached 3.14 % in Q1, 1.07 p.p. higher on YoY basis. In the same period the operational business margin also increased and reached 4.39% (1.06 p.p. higher), predominantly due to substantial net interest income growth while net fee and commission income growth was subtle.

Net non-interest income Growth of F&C income YoY despite cancelation of high balance deposit fees

Net non-interest income of the NLB Group (in EURm)

Net fee and commission income (in EURm)

*Other includes investment funds, guarantees, investment banking, insurance products and other services.

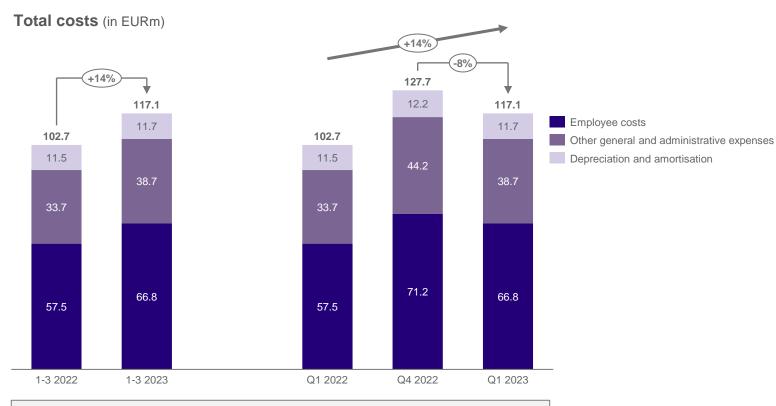

- A major part of the net non-interest income has been derived from the net fee and commission income.
- N Banka became part of the Group in March 2022 and was therefore only partially included in last year's Q1 result
- QoQ decrease due to one-time expenses for regulatory costs in NLB and N Banka (assessment), EUR 8.6 million for DGS and EUR 2.9 million for SRF, but also related to very strong previous quarter on payment transactions and cards and ATM operations, related to seasonal higher consumption in Q4.

- Higher fees from cards and payment services in all banking members.
- Cancellation of high balance deposit fee in the Bank.

Costs

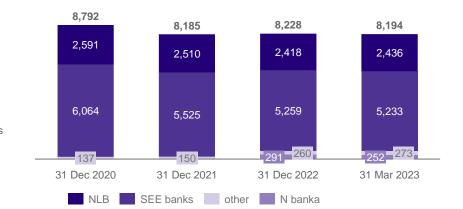

Inflation and integration process affecting costs

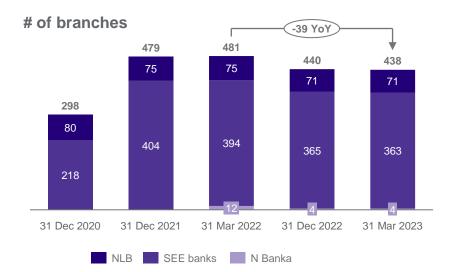

of employees

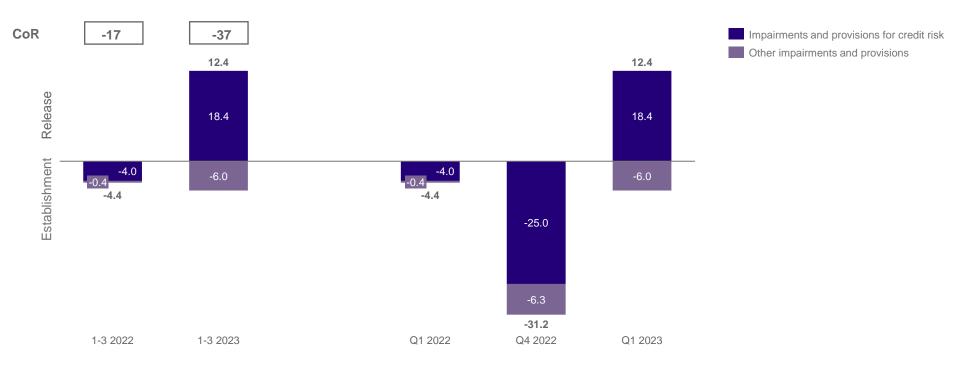

- The Group is affected by rising employee (EUR 9.3 million YoY), and other general and administrative expenses (EUR 5.0 million YoY), in large part related to the inflation, as well as cost related to the integration process of N Banka (EUR 2.0 million of integration costs in Q1 2023) and the fact that N Banka's cost base was only partially included in total costs in Q1 2022 – neutralizing for this, cost growth would have been lower, 10% YoY.
- The QoQ decrease is related to the normal seasonality in the last quarter.

Impairments and provisions

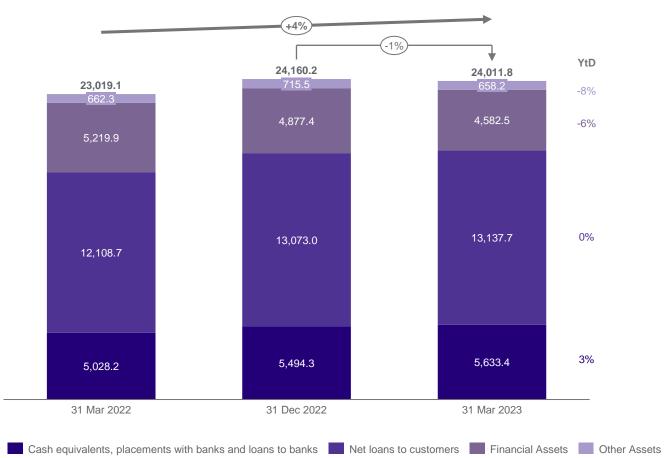

- Impairments and provisions for credit risk were net released in the amount of EUR 18.4 million, main factors being positive effects from a successful collection of previously written-off receivables, due to a favorable environment for NPLs resolution, and positive portfolio development, mainly due to the sale of Russian bonds and repayments in the corporate segment.
- Other impairments and provisions were net established in the amount of EUR 6.0 million, the main reasons for that being the release of provisions for legal risk in the Bank and establishment of other provisions for liability in relation to reimbursement of fees in case of early loan repayment.
- The cost of risk was negative, -37 bps, supported by the sale of Russian government bonds and positive contribution from NPL resolution in most of the Group members.

Capital Capital position enabling growth and dividend distribution

- As at 31 March 2023, the TCR for the Group stood at 18.9% (or 0.3 p.p. decrease YtD), and the CET1 ratio stood at 14.8% (0.3 p.p. YtD decrease).
- The lower total capital adequacy derives from lower capital (EUR 41.1 million YtD), which was not compensated by lower RWA (EUR -30.8 million YtD).
- Although the overall revaluation adjustments in 1Q 2023 were positive in the amount EUR 21.9 million, the total capital decreased by EUR 41.1 million YtD, since the temporary treatment of fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) valuations for sovereign securities with the positive effect of EUR 61.7 million as at 31 December 2022 ceased to apply in January 2023.

NLB Group

The Overall Capital Requirement (OCR) is 14.25% for the Bank on a consolidated basis, consisting of:

- 10.40% TSCR (8.00% P1R and 2.40% P2R); and
- 3.85% CBR (2.50% Capital Conservation Buffer, 1.25% O-SII Buffer, 0.10% System Risk Buffer, and 0% Countercyclical Buffer).

Pillar 2 Guidance is set at 1.00%.

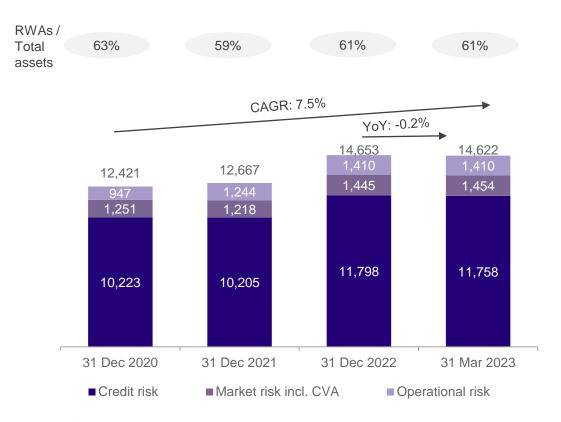

1) The Pillar 2 Requirement for 2023 decreased by 0.2 p.p. to 2.40%, due to a better overall SREP assessment. 2) On April 2022, the BoS issued a new Regulation on determining the requirement to maintain a systemic risk buffer for banks and savings banks, which with 1 January 2023 introduced the systemic risk buffer rates for the sectoral exposures: 1.0% for all retail exposures to natural persons secured by residential real estate and 0.5% for all other exposures to natural persons. 3) On April 2022, the BoS relating to the macro-prudential measure capital buffer for other systemically important institutions. Capital buffer is increased by 0.25 p.p. to 1.25%, from 1st January 2023. 4) In December 2022 The BoS raised the countercyclical capital buffer for other systemically important institutions. Capital buffer is increased by 0.25 p.p. to 1.25%, from 1st January 2023. 4) In December 2022 The BoS raised the countercyclical capital buffer for other systemically important institutions. Capital buffer is increased by 0.25 p.p. to 1.25%, from 1st January 2023. 4) In December 2022 The BoS raised 20 and the countercyclical capital buffer for exposures in the Republic of Slovenia from zero to 0.5% of the total risk exposure amount. Banks have to meet the requirement by 31st December 2023.

RWA structure

Prudent RWA management to improve capital ratios

RWA structure (in EURm)

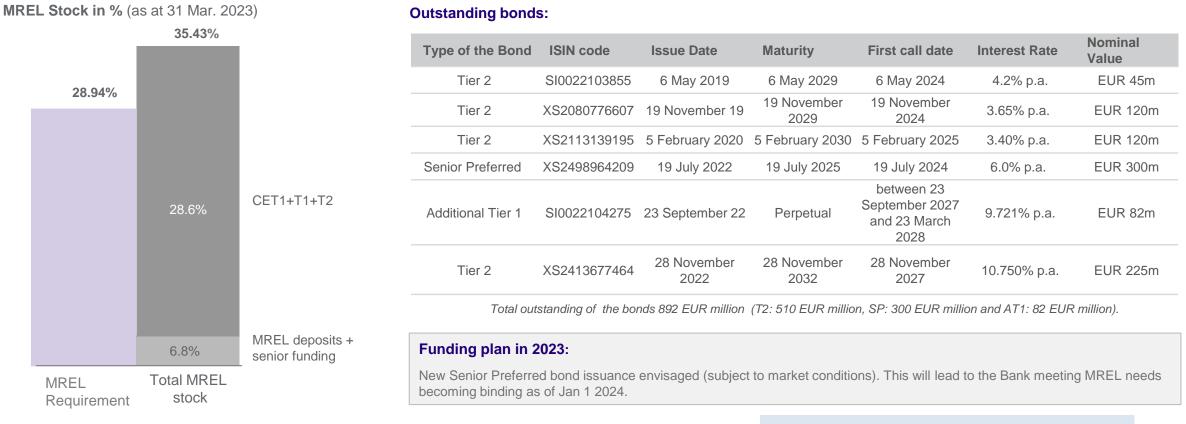

RWA for credit risk decreased by EUR 39.8 million, mainly due to maturity of liquid assets in NLB Komercijalna Banka, Beograd and lower placements at CB in foreign currency (EUR). RWA reduction was partially offset by project finance exposures and retail lending exposures growth. Overall, RWA of corporate segment is on the level of the year 2022 while in Retail segment it increased.

The increase in RWAs for market risks and CVA (Credit Value Adjustments) in the amount of EUR 9.1 million YtD is the result of higher RWA for FX risk in the amount of EUR 12.1 million, higher RWA for CVA risk in the amount of EUR 4.9 million, and lower RWA for TDI risk in the amount of EUR 8.0 million (as a consequence of termination of some deals).

- Credit portfolio remains well diversified. Industries with largest exposures include a broad range of diverse activities.
- In Q1 NLB Group corporate credit portfolio decreased due to repayments by some companies from electricity, gas, steam industry and a related financial holding, which are connected mainly to the energy law in the Republic of Slovenia. Otherwise, NLB Group increased lending, mainly to the companies from wholesale and retail trade and from construction industry, the later related to project financing.
- The Bank is very cautious when financing the sectors with possible negative effects resulting from RU/UA crisis, therefore cautious selection of best clients in the region with favourable prospects is exercised.

N Banka Integration

Integration of N Banka into NLB is progressing well with important testing runs ahead of us

Highlights of integration process

Clients

 The ECB application with audited financial statements of both banks is completed and submitted to the competent authorities on April 20 Detailed step plan developed - legal merger to happen on September 1st and operational merger during weekend prior to September 4th

- Client churn stabilized by implementation of counter measures, yet technically client
- numbers decrease due to clean up
- · Retail guidelines developed and implemented: they contain guidance on clients transfer and gradual implementation of limitations to products, envisaged to come to a halt at least two months prior to integration
- · Joint Corporate and SME clients are serviced in close collaboration between N Banka and NLB to ensure best possible customer experience, new lending is largely provided by NLB now
- Client usage of and feedback on Branch/KIOSKS closely monitored; two Kiosks closed in March, further two Kiosks closed beginning of April
- Four N Banka branches will be largely upgraded to meet NLB standards shortly after the operational merger

- Operational stabilization of N Employees Banka achieved through several structural initiatives
 - Realization of synergies supported by established voluntary leave program and progressing as planned more than 50 agreements signed by employees
 - First colleagues already switched from N Banka to NLB in areas like Front Office, Compliance, Organization etc.
 - More than 130 employees of N Banka either already signed a contract to join NLB or are in the selection process

- N Banka marketing function has been insourced to NLB
- Communication initiatives between N Banka and NLB on key activities (sports sponsorships, donations etc.) are coordinated ommunication

Marketing

- Comprehensive communication approach towards clients is developed to continue and increase client engagement. Key communication milestones are set
- We are currently preparing comprehensive content package for pre-merger and merger communication, to ensure clients are well informed about all changes in services

• During Test Run 1 (March) and Test Run 2 (April) data migration was tested, identified issues are being analysed and cleaned before Test Run 3 (May)

Progress

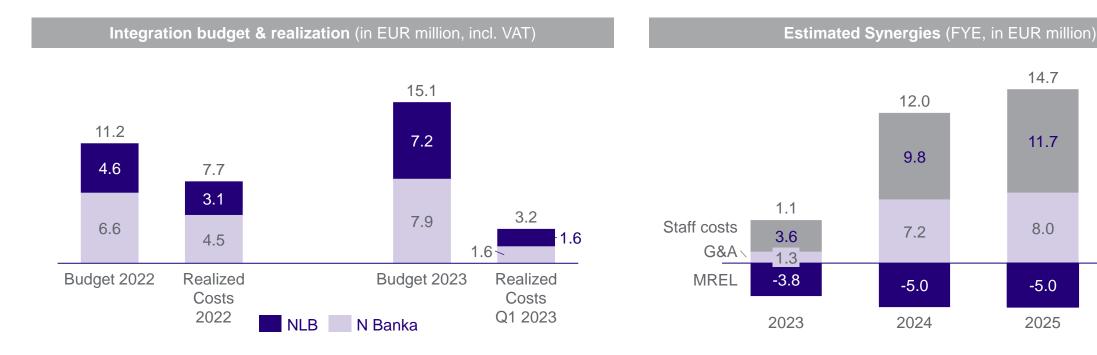

Integration

- Vendors fully onboarded to support required developments, testing etc.
- Cut-over playbook designed and ready to be tested and refined during three Dress Rehearsals scheduled for June, July and August
- Preparation for cards cutover (migration of data necessary for card printing, scheduled for early July) in full swing and progressing according to plan

NLB Group

Total integration cost will be covered by synergies by the end of 2025, budget realization so far in line with budget plan

Integration Budget & Synergies

- Realized costs in 2022 significantly below budget, mainly due to 1.2 million of HR provisions, where NLB and N Banka finally decided to allocate those to 2023; furthermore, certain services were partially delivered and invoiced in 2023 instead of 2022
- This in turn, will increase the costs for 2023 respectively, so total budget is expected to remain stable at 26.3 million EUR
- Budget realization so far in line with plan

- Full synergy potential to be reached in 2025 (yearly run-rate of EUR 14.7 million)
- Limited synergies in 2023 due to merger in September, yet approx. 25% of run-rate synergies expected to kick-in already due to reduction of staff and G&A costs
- Due to consolidation of N Banka approx. EUR 125 million of additional MREL funding is needed and is considered as dis-synergy, amounting to approx. EUR 5 million p.a..

Focus in Q2 2023 very much on Test Runs and Dress Rehearsals preparation

Business with customers

 Customers are mainly using plain vanilla FX and Interest rate derivatives for hedging of their business model.

Hedging

- NLB is concluding interest rate swaps in line with fair value hedge accounting rules. Micro and macro hedges are used for hedging of fixed rate loan portfolio and micro Interest rate swaps are used for the purpose of securities hedging. In the last year, no new hedges were concluded due to sufficient risk appetite and negative effect of the swap.
- FX swaps used for short-term liquidity hedging increased in last year mainly due to placement of foreign currency.

^(I) Net interest income from assets and liabilities with the use of FTP.

(ii) Net interest margin and interest rates only for NLB.

(iii) Contribution profit (annualized) /contribution capital requirement (=15.25% RWA).

- Net interest income was EUR 28.6 million higher YoY, mostly due to the key ECB interest rate increase that had positive effect on interest margin on clients' deposits. Deposit interest rates are by their nature less elastic which, in increasing market rate environment and taking low duration of the deposit base into account, is reflected in a higher margin. On the other hand, the average margin on loan portfolio has declined as the old high-margin portfolio is maturing and loans concluded from mid 2020 prevails. In recent years the market has become increasingly competitive pushing client rates (and margins) down; in addition recent market rate movements have not been fully incorporated into client loan rates for new business, which is reflected in declining margin at the portfolio level. However, it must be noted that the main drivers of net interest income YoY growth on the Bank level were increasing market rates and higher loan volume.
- Net fee and commission income was EUR 1.6 million higher YoY, mostly due to the acquisition of N Banka in March 2022 and higher fees from bancassurance, but partially offset due to cancellation of high balance deposit fee (EUR 0.6 million).
- Costs went up by EUR 6.6 million, mostly due to higher operating costs resulting from inflationary pressures.
- Impairments and provisions were net established in the amount of EUR 11.5 million, due to an increase of volume and portfolio development, and establishment of other provisions for liability in relation to reimbursement of fees in case of early loan repayment.
- The volume of loans in the Bank was higher by 1% YtD in both, housing and consumer portfolio, despite a slowdown related to the interest rate hike.
- The deposit base remained stable YtD.

- The net interest income was EUR 11.0 million higher YoY, mostly due to the key ECB interest rate increase that had a positive effect on the interest margin on clients' deposits. Deposit interest rates are by their nature less elastic which, in increasing market rate environment and taking low duration of the deposit base into account, is reflected in a higher margin. However, it must be noted that the main drivers of net interest income YoY growth on the Bank level were increasing market rates and higher loan volume.
- Lower net fee and commission income YoY, an increase related to higher income from cards and guarantees but offset with cancelation of the high balance deposit fee which had negative influence on fee income of EUR 2.0 million in Q1.
- Higher costs by EUR 5.4 million, mostly due to higher operating costs resulting from inflationary pressures.
- Impairments and provisions were net released in the amount of EUR 4.4 million, mostly due to repayments of previously written-off receivables.
- The volume of gross loans decreased by EUR 114.5 million YtD, due to positive evolution in the energy sector and repayment of syndicated loans. In Q1 2023 the Bank approved EUR 162.1 millions of new loans, the stock loan volume dropped by 2.7% YtD, mostly due to before mentioned repayments of extraordinary liquidity lines.
- The volume of deposits decreased by EUR 336.5 million or 8.9% YtD, due to general noticeable decrease in all Slovenian banking system, however, the Bank was able to maintain its market share. In the last month such a declining trend normalized.

- Net non-interest income increased by EUR 5.9 million YoY, of which net fee and commission income by EUR 1.4 million.
- Total costs increased by EUR 3.7 million YoY, due to higher operating costs resulting from inflationary pressures and establishment of two new leasing companies and NLB Digit, Beograd.
- Impairments and provisions were net released in the amount of EUR 11.1 million, mainly due to successful NPL resolution.
- Regardless of the increased interest rates and lower loans demand on some markets, the banking members marked a robust 10% (EUR 574.4 million) YoY and 2% (EUR 153.2 million) YtD increase in lending activities. The largest increase of gross loans to customers was realized by NLB Banka, Sarajevo (16% YoY), NLB Komercijalna Banka, Beograd (12% YoY) and NLB Banka, Prishtina (12% YoY).
- The customer behaviour was impacted by the increased interest rates environment and banking sector fallouts, causing slight loans demand drop and deposits withdrawals in some countries of operations. However, the overall confidence remained strong in the banking sector, thus the total customer deposit base increased by 6% YoY and remained flat YtD.
